A DSLR can be bought at stores such as Best Buy, Target, Wal-Mart or on online stores such as B&H Photo, Amazon, and Adorama. If you go into any of the listed stores they should be able to tell you exactly what you need. However, I have included a list of specific cameras that you could get to give you an idea of what you are looking for, but you are not required to get one of these specifically.
Nikon DSLR: Nikon D3500, Nikon D7500, Nikon Mirrorless Z50 or Z5.
Canon DSLR: Canon Rebel T7 or T7i, Canon Rebel SL1, Canon Mirrorless M50 Mark II.
Most cameras come with a standard lens (18mm-55mm), but some stores will do a kit package with a zoom lens and camera bag if you want to purchase the extras. The zoom lens (55-200mm) is great for sports.
